Another Man Went to Her Rescue and When Louis and John Jones Turned on the Rescuer She Shot Both Assailants.

Wheeling, West Virginia, April 20.—Mrs. Alice Cheek, wife of a hotel-keeper at Welch, this state, killed to-day John and Louis Jones, who were guests at the hotel. The men refused to pay their bill for hotel expenses and, besides that, abused her. Arthur Taylor interfered in the woman's behalf and was in turn attacked by the two men. Then Mrs. Cheek drew a revolver and shot both of the assailants. She has not been arrested yet.

MADE COMMOTION
IN HOUSE TODAYHavens' Victory Over a "Regular" Republican in New York Also Opens Bryans' Lips.

Washington, D. C., April 20.—There was commotion in the House to-day following Havens' victory at Rochester, which Bryan called a "harbinger of future elections." The Herald, an independent paper, says: "Dissatisfaction with the new tariff law was in itself doubtless sufficient to lose the election, and the championship of the tariff by Aldridge made the defeat inevitable."

Rochester, N. Y., April 20.—James S. Havens, whose majority over George W. Aldridge for Congress, was 5,831, is to-day being boomed for next governor of New York. Democrats say the defeat of Aldridge was purely a protest against the tariff, principally the wool schedule.

BRYAN IN WHITE HOUSE

It Was as Visitor to President Taft for Half-Hour.

Washington, April 20.—William J. Bryan walked to the White House yesterday to pay his respects to President Taft. The two were together for half an hour. Mr. Bryan said the call was purely social and politics was not discussed.

In the afternoon, Mr. Bryan visited the capital and urged the local committee on insular affairs to appropriate money for the extermination of the hookworm in Porto Rico and to establish a Pan-American college there. He declared that Porto Rico is "the key by which we are to unlock South America," and that South America offers a golden opportunity for the immigrant.

Mr. Bryan and Speaker Cannon had a talk in the latter's office. Later the Nebraska held an impromptu reception in the House yesterday.

He met a number of Democratic representatives, with whom he discussed pending legislation. He thought Democrats should vote for the postal savings bank bill, but feared that the bad features of the railroad bill outweigh its good ones. Mr. Bryan left last night for Lincoln.

ARMORY A. A. BOUTS.

Honey Melody Defeated in Ten Rounds
by Young Loughrey.

Boston, April 20.—The visiting boxers took all the honors from the local boys at the weekly bouts at the Armory Athletic association last night.

In the main bout Young Loughrey of Philadelphia got the decision from "Honey" Melody of Boston at the end of ten rounds. Melody was wild but landed many telling swings, which dazed the victor. Young Loughrey sent Melody to the floor in the second and fourth rounds and had him staggering a greater part of the time, but was unable to deliver a stiff enough punch to end the bout.

Dave Desher of Cambridge fought a creditable ten rounds against Tommy O'Keefe of Philadelphia, over the latter for eight rounds and landing telling blows but securing only a draw.

In the preliminary Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland won the decision from Al Delmont of Boston in ten rounds.

WOMAN LEAPS INTO FALLS.

Reversing Current of St. John River Torrent Sweeps Body Ashore.

St. John, N. B., April 20.—Standing for a brief moment on a rock overlooking the famous reversing falls in the St. John river, an unidentified woman yesterday leaped headlong into the torrent and was carried out of sight in an instant.

Later, the body was swept ashore, which is considered remarkable, as the reversing falls seldom give up their dead.

MARK TWAIN IN GOOD SPIRITS.

Heart Trouble Makes His Illness Treacherous, Says Physician.

Budding, Conn., April 20.—Mark Twain passed a restful night and is in good spirits this morning, though there is no appreciable change in the sad condition. "I cannot tell how the fight will go," said Dr. Halsey, his physician, "with heart trouble the result is always doubtful."

TROOPS DISPATCHED

To Quell Rioting Among Negroes in Santa Clara Province.

Havana, April 20.—A thousand troops, consisting of artillery, cavalry and infantry, left to-day for Santa Clara province, where the negroes are rioting. The trouble is believed to be racial, not revolutionary.

THE ROOSEVELTS
LEAVE FOR PARISGiven Tumultuous Send-Off from Budapest Last Night. Will Reach
Paris To-morrow Morning.

Budapest, April 20.—Theodore Roosevelt and Kermit left here last night by the Orient Express for Paris, where they will arrive Thursday morning.

Mr. Roosevelt's last day in Hungary furnished additional proof of the deep impression he has made upon the people, high and low. The enthusiasm increased to the moment of his departure. Hundreds cheered in front of the hotel when he left in the morning for a visit to the government stock farm at Babelna, where Arab horses are bred, and thousands were massed about the station when he returned at seven o'clock last night. They greeted him with Hungarian cries, equivalent to the American "Hurrah for Roosevelt."

The packed streets echoed the cries as he passed and this demonstration was thrice repeated later during the evening, in front of the hotel as he departed for the premiere's dinner and on his return, and when he left the hotel finally for the station, where another multitude had waited until midnight to see him off.

The same enthusiasm was displayed 70 miles from Budapest, on the drive from the railroad to Babelna. Carriages conveyed the party through thatched-roof villages, decorated with crude American flags under hastily constructed triumphal arches, amid the shouts of the entire population. The village of Babelna had been dismantled in order that the children might join in acclaiming the American.

Mr. Roosevelt hugely enjoyed his visit to the breeding farms. After lunch, at which the speeches of welcome were most fervid, a score of Arab stallions were trotted out for his inspection. The colonel in charge of the stud took the greatest pride in showing the fine points of the beautiful animals, saying to Mr. Roosevelt:

"I am not married; my wives are in the stable."

The president and the women of the party, including Countess Szechenyi, fed the horses sugar. Later the party visited the mares where Colonel Roosevelt was shown a tiny thoroughbred which was born yesterday. It is a filly, but the colonel christened it "Roosevelt."

The dinner at the foreign office last night was followed by a reception. The Calvinist bishop of Hungary, speaking at the luncheon at Babelna, referred to Mr. Roosevelt as "the champion of Protestantism."

POPE PUNISHES THOSE WHO HONORED "T. R."One Recalled for Calling Upon Him, While Another, Who Wrote Him a Eulogistic Letter, Must Retire to Monastery.

Rome, April 20.—Central news despatches from Rome say that the pope has just issued an unusual and severe decree. It is a decree of excommunication, the pope's usual punishment for serious offenses.

It is said the pope has also ordered Father Jahnke, who wrote a eulogistic letter to Roosevelt, to retire to a monastery for three months.

LITTLE BOY KILLED.

By Bullet from Gun in Another Boy's Hand.

Boston, April 20.—Frank F. Gately, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gately of 871 Albany street, was fatally shot yesterday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, while looking into a cellar window at 506 Albany street. The bullet came from a rifle in the hands of John Bowen, a 7-year-old companion, who was inside the cellar and passed through the Gately boy's mouth into his skull.

Although Miss Fannie Gately, 18-year-old sister of the wounded boy, ran with her brother nearly half a mile on her way to the city hospital and was then taken by two men in a passing touring car, which looks all speed like in an effort to reach medical aid in time, when the machine came to a stop at the hospital entrance the boy had died in his sister's arms.

While Miss Gately was running down Albany street with her brother in her arms, she overtook her father, who was just going to his work at night fireman at the Boston Consolidated Gas company works on Southampton street. He boarded an automobile with his two children and was overcome with grief when his boy was pronounced dead.

FATHER LIVES IN VERMONT.

Richard Ball Believes in Innocence of His Son, Albert.

Concord, N. H., April 20.—Richard Ball of Lunenburg, Vt., father of Albert F. Ball, who is charged with the murder of Charles H. Fellows, has been spending a few days in town in consultation with his son's family and the attorneys for the accused man. He left late Monday night to return to his home in Vermont and will not return unless unexpected developments in the case demand his presence.

Mr. Ball was perfectly assured of his son's innocence, and this belief is borne out by his return to Vermont before the accused man has even been arraigned. He repeated the remark that has been so often attributed to him: "There has been some mistake made," but beyond this had little to say to persons not members of the immediate family regarding the case.

On the arraignment of Ball, it is understood that his counsel, N. E. Martin and J. M. Stark, if their selection by the prisoner is confirmed by the court, will attempt to secure a trial at the current session, and it is believed that the state will not be adverse to an early hearing if it can be arranged.

PARIS "TODGED OUT"

In Anticipation of Roosevelt's Arrival Shortly.

Paris, April 20.—Paris all "todged out" in honor of Roosevelt. French and American flags were everywhere, and shop windows are full of his pictures. He will arrive to-night.

WOMAN HIT
BY RUNAWAYSMrs. Oliver Delphia May be Fatally Injured

ACCIDENT AT MIDDLEBURY

She Was Thrown from Wagon and Sustained Several Broken Bones—One of the Runaways Had to Be Killed.

Middlebury, April 20.—A runaway accident, which may result in the death of Mrs. Oliver Delphia, occurred in this village late yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Delphia being thrown out of her wagon when the runaway span of William Husdin crashed into her wagon. Mrs. Delphia was thrown into the street and was rendered unconscious. Two ribs were broken, and one collarbone. The woman was bruised and torn in addition to that and may have sustained other injuries.

The Husdin pair were attached to a lumber box wagon. Becoming frightened, they broke away and ran wildly through the business streets of the village. When they collided with Mrs. Delphia's team, both wagons were badly smashed, and one of the runaways was so badly hurt that it was found necessary to kill the animal.

KICKED TO DEATH

THE POLICE SAY

Agnes Downey, 30, of Boston Dead, and a Brother Is Charged with Killing
Her Last Night.

Boston, April 20.—Miss Agnes Downey, 30 years old, was found dead on the floor at her home, 15 Mechanic street, Jamaica Plain, early this morning. She had been kicked to death by a large number of men, who had taken place there.

As a result of their investigations, the officers arrested Joseph Downey, 21 years old, of the same address, charged with the murder of his sister. It is alleged that he kicked her to death. The father, Dennis Downey, 50 years old, and a younger brother, Thomas Downey, 19 years old, were linked up as witnesses to the killing of Agnes, who was better known in the neighborhood as Rose.

The Downeys were celebrating the birthday of their son, who is 10 years old, who is small for his age, commemorated with Joseph. Agnes interfered between the birthday brothers and received a kick in the abdomen. She fell to the floor. A neighbor ran to the home of Dr. Charles Malone, 15 Glen road. When the physician got to the Downey apartment the daughter was dead. Her body had been dragged from the room in which her death occurred to another room, and an old cushion placed under her head.

A boy notified a group of policemen at a nearby corner. At the house Joseph told the officers, they say, that his brother, Thomas, had kicked his sister. The father and Thomas insisted that it was Joseph who did the kicking.

Medical Examiner Timothy Leary found no external marks on the body. An autopsy will be held to-day. Dr. Leary could not say what caused the woman's death.

Agnes Downey worked in a twin mill at Washington and Key streets, Jamaica Plain. Her father and brother are laborers. Mrs. Downey died several years ago, and Agnes was the housekeeper. None of the family has been arrested before.

HE KILLED HIMSELF

IN HOTEL ROOM

Warren B. Call, a Suicide in Boston, and Reason for Act Cannot Be Given by Friends.

Boston, April 20.—Warren B. Call, 50 years old, of 25 Sims road, Winchester, treasurer of the Horace Partridge company, 75 Hawley street, dealers in sporting goods, was found dead in room 218 of the Hotel Essex about 1:35 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with a bullet wound in the back of his head. A 32-caliber revolver lay near him and the medical examiner declared that Call was a suicide.

Inquiry at the hotel showed that Call had registered there at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning, under the name of Charles R. Warren, Providence, R. I., and immediately went to his room. He was not seen again, and the first intimation the hotel officials had that anything was wrong came from a chambermaid, who said that she had been unable to arouse the inmate.

The clerk sent porters to the room, and the tyroon was forced, showing the body of Call stretched on the bed, partly dressed. The door was then forced, and the revolver and bloodstained bed clothing told the story. Medical Examiner Leary was summoned and after ascertaining that death was caused by a bullet from a pistol, which entered the brain from the back of the man's head, took charge of the remains, and ascertained from letters and other papers the correct name of the deceased.

A letter, sealed and directed to Mrs. Call, was found on the bureau.

A fellow employee of Call, who went to the hotel after being notified of the tragedy by the police, said that the treasurer had left the office Monday morning, announcing he was going to visit his wife and relatives to Bath, Me. Instead, he apparently went immediately to the hotel and registered.

Persons who knew Call are at a loss to account for his suicide. As far as known, he lived a regular, pleasant life and was never financially embarrassed. The head of the firm with which Call was connected was out of town and could not be reached yesterday.

COMPROMISE PROPOSED.

Railroad Will Build Roundhouse at Bennington Under Conditions.

Bennington, April 20.—At the conclusion of an all day hearing before the public service commission yesterday afternoon, General Manager George T. Jarvis of the Rutland railroad made a proposal that the company build a roundhouse north of the freight house as the petitioners had requested. The proposal was made on the condition that the petitioners withdraw other features of their petition, such as gates at the crossing, opening the station until midnight with an operator at the office.

When the hearing opened yesterday morning, E. W. Lawrence, attorney for the railroad company, made a proposal from the company to build a roundhouse on the site of the former building, burned several years ago. After many for the petitioners of the village and town all objected, claiming that such a building would not mitigate the nuisance complained of by nearly 50 witnesses, mostly residents of Lincoln, the street adjacent to which locomotives have been stored on side tracks since the roundhouse burned.

The commissioners also considered the appeal of C. A. Murrer, a Bennington attorney, from the action of the village board rejecting an application for a telephone franchise, but no decision was announced.

PEARY WAS MODEST.

Took Little Credit in Burlington Lecture for North Pole Find.

Burlington, April 20.—Commander Robert E. Peary spoke to a crowded house at the Strong last night, telling about his Arctic exploration and discovery of the north pole. U. S. Collector C. B. Darling, who went to Vargennes to meet the commander on his way from New York, also introduced him to the audience last night.

Commander Peary spoke in a simple and unassuming manner, taking little credit to himself. He said, in conclusion, that his story told of the victory of 400 years of effort, and that the glory of it went to the United States. He said that many people had asked him his sensations on arriving at the top of the earth. All the reply he could make was that he was so physically exhausted that the only deep sensation he felt was one of satisfaction at the completion of 23 years of work.

After the lecture, the members of the Ethan Allen club, under whose auspices the lecture was given, had an opportunity to meet Commander Peary at the clubhouse, and a large number, with ladies, availed themselves of the privilege.

FLYER HITS ENGINECrash in Yard at Bellows Falls Yesterday Afternoon, Nobody Killed,
but Some Were Hurt.

Bellows Falls, April 20.—The Green Mountain flyer crashed into a Boston & Maine switcher here yesterday afternoon, that was backing some box cars across the main line in the Rutland yard, reducing two box cars to kindling wood and damaging both locomotives.

Nobody was seriously hurt, but some received a bad shaking up. A special was made up to take the place of the flyer.

CHUCKED "PREXY."

Marietta College Juniors Become Belligerent.

Marietta, O., April 20.—The chapel service of Marietta college broke up in disorder yesterday following the appearance of the junior class in costumes burlesquing the caps and gowns of the seniors. President Alfred J. Perry suspended the junior class.

The disorder reached a climax when two members of the junior class grasped President Perry and thrust him bodily from the room.

Escorted back by the members of the faculty, President Perry told the juniors that they were suspended and ordered them to leave. Not until he had threatened to call the police was his command obeyed.

There are 22 men and women in the rebellious class. They claim that they had only followed college customs in the box in such manner that they could be read by the clerk, C. J. Russell. He did not consider this a fair and proper way to draw a jury, as the law provides that the selection of the jury should be fortuitous, while this was too much in the nature of a "sure thing game."

For this reason the juniors objected to the court and was allowed to enter a nolle prosequi.

SURE THING GAME.

State's Attorney Shaw Called Method of Drawing Jury.

Burlington, April 20.—The case of State vs. Joseph Agel came to an abrupt ending in county court yesterday morning, when State's Attorney H. B. Shaw asked that the case be not pressed on to a jury trial, but that the jury be drawn in a regular manner. The court granted his request.

The case is one growing out of an information, charging that the respondent sold Narragansett beer or ale, during the prohibition law, to several individuals, thus violating the prohibition law in a fourth-class license, which allows sales to be made only to holders of a retail license.

Mr. Shaw last night said that in drawing the jury he noticed that some of the slips on which the names of the individual jurors were printed were turned in the box in such manner that they could be read by the clerk, C. J. Russell. He did not consider this a fair and proper way to draw a jury, as the law provides that the selection of the jury should be fortuitous, while this was too much in the nature of a "sure thing game."

For this reason the juniors objected to the court and was allowed to enter a nolle prosequi.

FIRE DAMAGE $1000.

House Owned by Mrs. A. M. Sordwell at Bellows Falls Destroyed.

Bellows Falls, April 20.—A fire occurred yesterday at the home belonging to Mrs. A. M. Sordwell, and owned by Mrs. J. A. Lawrence. After a stubborn fight the surrounding buildings were saved. The damage amounted to about $1000, with small insurance.

DR. D. B. SMITH
FOUND DEADWell Known Physician Probably Had Shock

WAS IN HEALTH YESTERDAY

He Had Been a Resident of Plainfield for Many Years and Was a Very Much Esteemed Resident of That Town.

Plainfield, April 20.—Dr. D. B. Smith, one of Plainfield's most esteemed citizens and well known throughout this section, was found dead in bed this morning. He was in his usual health yesterday. It is supposed that death was due to a shock, as he had had two such attacks not long ago.

The people of this town were shocked and saddened by the news of his death. He had spent the greater part of his life here and had gained a very wide acquaintance in Plainfield and many surrounding towns through his long medical practice. He was considered a successful physician. He was a kind neighbor and he had the esteem of all his acquaintances.

Dr. Smith married Miss Edna Holbrook; she died a few years ago. Several children, born to them, died in infancy. He is survived by two brothers, David and Marcus Smith, both of Willimansett, and two nephews, Rev. Alvin M. Smith of Brownfield, Me., and Oron Smith of Melrose, Mass. The funeral arrangements have not been made yet.

UNUSUAL HONOR.

Paid Parady, Clerk, a Quarryman, at Funeral To-day.

To have a big business suspend and to have most of the workmen and employers, present at his funeral was the somewhat unusual distinction paid today to Parady, Clerk, just a worker in the quarry of E. L. Smith & Co., who died Monday and whose funeral was held this morning at nine o'clock in the little home next to the quarry, where he had lived so many years.

It was because Parady was the oldest employee of the concern—it was a quarter of a century ago when he first began work there—and because he was a general favorite that this distinction was accorded him. Everybody liked Parady, so everybody wanted to do him honor.

Also Parady was a good worker. As his 25 years service for one firm shows. Another distinction was that the six most elderly employees of E. L. Smith & Co. acted as his pallbearers. They were W. J. Edwards, 55 years service; Robert W. Kay, 22 years; Eugene Y. Milley, 22 years; John H. Smith, 23 years; Joe Buehler, 18 years; and Walter Grady, 18 years, and the foreman of the quarry. So it was with a good deal of tenderness that these men laid their companion of so many years away in the little grave in Williston cemetery. Fr. Turner, as a friend of the deceased, read prayers.

Things won't be quite natural when the quarry opens up without little Parady, because he was the most familiar figure around there, as well as around the whole quarry region. He leaves an aged widow who was many years older than himself, and Parady was 67. Mrs. Parady had not long ago married Parady, and he lives in Burlington, where the deceased lived prior to coming to Barre. Manager Donald Smith of the first said to-day that Parady hadn't an enemy in the world.

He served him with a writ of habeas corpus, demanding his production before Judge Holt in the United States circuit court. Hoffstad's attorney alleges that the granting of the extradition demand was in violation of his constitutional rights.

DeBoer of Montpelier, president of the National Life Insurance company of Montpelier.

BROKE RED COATS' RECORD.

Walworth Company Marches from Boston to Concord.

Lowell, Mass., April 20.—The Middlesex military marching record, established 135 years ago by a detachment of British troops under Lord Percy and Major Pitcairn, in an exhibition from Boston to Concord, was broken yesterday by a squad of eight men from Company F, of the fifth regiment of infantry of Walworth, who covered the twenty-six miles from Boston to this city in five hours and forty-eight minutes.
